

ACIREALE

Frumento

Pizzeria overlooking the 17th-century Basilica of San Sebastiano and, in the summer, outdoor seating in the small square. It offers a menu of original pizzas, featuring organic and artisanal ingredients, Slow Food Presidia, and dough made with ancient grains, the result of a constant pursuit of excellence.

Pizzeria Vulcanika

Contemporary pizza is born from the fusion of two excellent culinary traditions, Sicilian and Campania, which enhance each other, creating a new take on pizza. A soft and digestible dough, made with the finest flours from Neapolitan and Sicilian mills, using ancient grains like Timilia and Russello

Domini

In the heart of Piazza San Domenico and immersed in the baroque beauty of Acireale, Dòmini Restaurant combines Chef Riccardo Russo's contemporary and creative cuisine with the refined conviviality of host Daniele Finocchiaro.

U Puttusu

Located in the heart of the baroque city of Acireale, between Mount Etna and the sea, the "U Puttusu" restaurant was founded in 2013 with the aim of offering traditional Sicilian dishes combined with innovative cuisine

Alloro

A new culinary narrative to experience and discover, a cuisine that speaks of the region through the careful preparation of local ingredients. IN THE LOUNGE A contemporary, informal, and well-curated space where you can share samples of our cuisine accompanied by a drink, making every moment special. AT THE TABLE A more intimate and formal dining room, where respect for the raw ingredients combined with the chef's technical expertise make culinary tradition an exaltation of pleasure

La grotta

At LA GROTTA RESTAURANT in Acireale (CT), you can enjoy fresh fish dishes, including first and second courses, appetizers including seafood salad, spaghetti with lobster, spaghetti with squid ink, or with shrimp, grilled and barbecued specialties, and much more. The restaurant boasts panoramic sea views in the tranquility of a small village. This intimate restaurant is housed in a cave with a stone wall and a terrace overlooking the sea.

Acquapazza

Seaside location, large panoramic windows in the dining room, and a seafront terrace in the summer. Only fresh, local fish.

Jumenta

Italian Steakhouse

GIARRE

Le Serre

Pizza, Mediterranean, cuisine

Vico Astemio

In the town center, surrounded by narrow alleys, a beautiful restaurant housed in an old barrel warehouse is home to self-taught chef Massimiliano Vasta, whose cuisine is rich in color and delicious flavors. He also offers a generous selection of two tasting menus and a beautiful menu divided between land and sea (despite the port being just steps away).

Novecento

Pizza, Seafood, Mediterranean

RIPOSTO

La Birreria

In an historic building in Riposto is an enchanted place where beer, bread, and oddities mix in a timeless space.

