MAASAI MARA

JAMANI HOUSE

KENYA

Jamani House, located in the midst of Kenya's Enonkishu Conservancy, offers a unique and personal luxury experience of the Maasai Mara.

The estate houses up to 16 guests* in 5 suites, including a bunk room. The design blends masterful architecture with riverine forest and peaceful, welcoming safari aesthetic with views of the Mara River.

In addition to a spacious living room with a cozy fireplace, the property offers a covered viewing terrace with open bar, large dining room, and a reading room, atop which sits the perfect rooftop terrace for sundowners.

The owners of the property are committed to three promises: the restoration of biodiversity and conservation, the improvement of livelihoods, and the creation of extraordinary experiences for their guests.

The Enonkishu Conservancy is host to over 50 species of mammals including some of the world's rarest, all locally accessible with your dedicated expert guides and safari vehicles.

Children 10 years and older are welcome.

An aerial photograph of a savanna landscape. In the foreground, there is a large, modern building complex with a dark roof and stone accents, surrounded by lush green trees and a well-maintained lawn. The middle ground shows a vast, open savanna with scattered acacia trees and rolling hills. In the background, there are more hills under a clear blue sky.

Enonkishu Conservancy is host to over 50 species of mammals including some of the world's rarest animals, such as the white rhino (at the Rhino Sanctuary on the edge of the Kileloni Hill), wild dog, leopard, cheetah and lion. For keen ornithologists, Enonkishu is home to over 350 species of birds, including a variety of eagles, vultures and the stunningly bright superb starling. Enonkishu also is host to a working cattle ranch. The Maasai Mara is acknowledged as one of the most important areas for biodiversity in Africa. The diversity of wildlife here is higher than in any other park in Africa.
